Golden Brown, Crusty Fried Chicken for a Few Pennies a Serving

FRYERS

BANQUET PERFECT CAPONETTES
CUT-UP, READY FOR THE PAN

Try these wonderful frying chickens this week-end . . . they are especially raised and packed to meet the rigid scientific "BANQUET-PERFECT" standards for flavor, tenderness and quality. Just imagine serving these plump, tender birds—they fry to a crusty, golden brown every time!

SWIFT'S PREMIUM FULLY COOKED RED LABEL

HAMS

WHOLE OR FULL SHANK HALF

Everyone knows that there is no finer ham than Swift's Red Label. Smoked the long, slow natural way for full flavor and goodness, these hams are just downright delicious no matter how you serve them. For a real treat try a glaze of brown sugar and sweet pickle juice.

63¢

SLICED BACON

Iowa Maid brand from Dubuque, Iowa, where the best pork is raised. This is a fine grade of hickory-smoked bacon that has the flavor that just won't fry away.

LAMB BREAST

Here's the dish to serve when your budget is running low. Lamb breast stuffed with your favorite dressing is a delicious and economical meal.

12¢

SPARE RIBS

Morrell's lean Eastern ribs, cut for barbecuing and just loaded with tender meat. Ribs make a zesty flavorful meal, especially when slowly barbecued over charcoal in the back yard.

37¢

LAMB CHOPS

Tender, delicious, seven bone chops cut from 1954 U.S. Choice spring lamb. Lamb chops are by all odds the family favorite. Serve them with broiled pineapple slices and green peas.

59¢

LAMB SHOULDER

U.S. Choice, 1954 Spring Lamb Shoulder. Roast shoulder just as you would a leg of lamb—or if you feel really ambitious try barbecuing it with tomatoes and green peppers.

35¢

HALIBUT STEAK

Tasty firm white meat center cut steaks that are so wonderful broiled and served with lemon butter. The secret of good fish cookery is not to overcook. Halibut is especially good at this time of the year.
